New Orleans Editors Fight a Duel.

[By Telegraph to the Sentinel.]
NEW ORLEANS, June 7.—A duel was fought this morning at the slaughter house between Major E. A. Burke, of the Times-Democrat, and O. H. Parker, editor of the Picayune. Pistols were used and five shots exchanged. At the fifth shot Burke was shot through the thigh. The wound is not considered dangerous.

A Chance for the Madstone.

[By Telegraph to the Sentinel.]
ATLANTA, Ga., June 7.—A farmer named H. P. Kingman was attacked by a rabid dog and bitten severely in the leg. The wounds are terrible and painful. He was taken at once to Savannah, Mo., by friends, where a celebrated madstone will be applied to prevent hydrophobia. The stone is owned by a doctor's family, and is reported to have made many marvelous cures of this character.

The Revolver Racket.

[By Telegraph to the Sentinel.]
CLINTON, Ill., June 7.—The daughter of Mr. Lewis Williams, named Lavina, was sitting in the front yard, when a young man named Charley Hammond came along, and in a jovial manner took out his revolver and pointed it at her to scare her, when it exploded, wounding the girl fatally. The ball took effect in the forehead. The young man is horrified at the fearful result of his joke. He supposed the revolver was unloaded.

Murdered by Tramps.

[By Telegraph to the Sentinel.]
ST. LOUIS, June 7.—A dispatch from Cairo, Ill., this morning says that J. W. Baylis, a farmer between fifty and sixty years of age, living about three and a half miles from Vienna, Ill., on the Wabash railroad, was murdered. It seems he had been sitting by a small lamp reading when the assassins entered and tied him to the chair in which he was sitting. Then they tied his hands behind him and his feet together. When found his feet were burned to a crisp by lamps being held under them. They then split his head with an axe and searched the house. When through they cut the bridge with which he was bound to the chair and shoved him over on the floor, where he was found by the neighbors dead. No clue to the assassins.

Further Particulars About the Boiler Explosion.

LOUISVILLE, June 7.—The evening Post special from Owensboro, Ky., says: "The information just received is that the steamer Evansville, while discharging freight at Calhoun yesterday morning, at 8:30 o'clock, collapsed one of her larboard flues, scalding eight or ten men, four badly. Engineer Baker, the mate, three negroes and two hogheads of tobacco were blown from amidship into the river. The line by which the boat was made fast parted and the boat drifted 150 yards down the river and took fire, but was easily extinguished and made fast again to the shore. She is now entirely helpless. The fireman and ash puller were wounded fatally, and the mate and watchman seriously. The passengers are all safe and unhurt. Both firemen will die. It is not known how many passengers were aboard, but among them were Mason Tap, Charles Wolschlagler and P. N. Williams, of Evansville. Captain Robinson telegraphed that the tow boat, Longfellow, will be sent to the Evansville's relief.

The Situation at Pittsburgh.
[By Telegraph to the Sentinel.]
PITTSBURGH, June 7.—The only thing new in the iron situation to-day was a secret meeting of the nail manufacturers of the west. The meeting lasted several hours, and when it adjourned the manufacturers one and all preserved profound silence as to the proceedings.

The Divided Brickmakers.

[By Telegraph to the Sentinel.]
CHICAGO, June 7.—South and west side striking brickmakers have unexpectedly refused to accept the compromise and return to work. The north side yards are, however, in full operation and it is hoped the others will resume to-day.

A Fearful Explosion.

[By Telegraph to the Sentinel.]
SAN ANTONIO, June 7.—A terrible explosion in tunnel No. 1 on the G. P. & T. R. R. extension occurred yesterday. Two hundred and fifty kegs of blasting powder being touched off by workman on the east end of the extension. The workmen at the west end were at once overwhelmed with earth, rocks and trees. Three were killed and five wounded.

Davitt on the Land Question.

[By Cable to the Sentinel.]
LIVERPOOL, June 7.—Davitt, in a speech at Liverpool last night, said he was in favor of the land becoming national property. He considered that the soil of Ireland could be purchased for tenants for £140,000,000 in government bonds, payable in fifty years. He denounced the Dublin castle rule as a monstrous failure.

A Prohibitory Crowd.

[By Telegraph to the Sentinel.]
MADISON, Wis., June 7.—A state prohibitory organization has been incorporated. Its objects are to secure the submission of a prohibitory amendment to the people and compel its enforcement. Its first meeting was held last evening, officers were elected and steps taken to organize the various counties and towns to raise money to carry out the purposes of the association.

The School Apportionment.

From the report of State Superintendent Bloss we glean the following interesting statistical information regarding the state of education in this county and the revenue. Compared with the report of Marion county, our school population is in excess, hence this county pays into the school fund less than it draws out which is not the case with Marion. The number of school children in this county is 24,375. $21,020.41 is derived from the tax. The interest on the common school fund since the apportionment is $1,398.75. Unclaimed fees amount to $3014. Total collected ready for apportionment, $23,344.30. Apportioned to this county, $34,811.30. The apportionment will be received about the 20th inst.

Commencing June 5, a change was made in the time table of the Pennsylvania road by which many of its important trains were affected. The "Western Express," leaving New York at six p. m. daily, has no through sleeping car or connection for Chicago and points in the northwest, and will be confined strictly to southwestern points, having through sleeping cars for Cincinnati and St. Louis. The "Pacific Express," leaving at eight p. m., arrives in Chicago at 6:45 a. m. the second day, and has through cars, making direct connections for all western and northwestern points. The service on the fast line, leaving at eight a. m. daily, remains as formerly for Pittsburgh and points beyond, excepting that the sleeping car for Louisville runs only to Cincinnati. The arriving time of this train at St. Louis has been changed to 8:10 p. m. The St. Louis connection from the "limited express," which leaves daily at 9 a. m., has been abandoned; otherwise that train will be run as heretofore.

Master of Transportation Clark, D. B. Stroppe, and several other employees of the Pittsburgh, went to Toledo this morning to testify in the case of O'Brien vs. Pennsylvania Railroad company. The action is for damages, resulting from the killing of Pat O'Brien about two years ago, at Nevada, Ohio. O'Brien was employed on the stone train at the time.

Harrison's Haul.

[By Telegraph to the Sentinel.]
WASHINGTON, June 7.—A patent has been issued from the land office of the interior department in favor of Ex-President William Henry Harrison. The patent is for 160 acres of land in Southern Ohio, which General Harrison purchased in 1805, under the old credit system. The interest on the investment already amounts to more than the principal sum invested.

The Buckeye Boys in Convention.

[By Telegraph to the Sentinel.]
COLUMBUS, June 7.—The republican state convention convened at 11 o'clock this morning, the attendance being unusually large. Senator Hallingworth, temporary chairman, in a lengthy speech reviewed the record of the republican party, national and state. In regard to the liquor traffic, he thought the amendments to the constitution should be submitted to the general assembly and the question made final with the people. In regard to the Sunday law, he was willing to stand by the action of the general assembly, as opposed to the record of free whisky and no Sunday. The usual committees were then appointed and the convention adjourned to meet again at 2 o'clock this afternoon. Senator Pond, author of the Pond law, is a member of the committee on resolutions.

The Firm of A. T. Stewart & Co.

[By Telegraph to the Sentinel.]
NEW YORK, June 7.—It has been determined by the firm of A. T. Stewart & Co. to close up their store on June 30. Every effort is being made to sell out the stock on hand, but it is confidentially stated that an immense amount of goods will remain unsold when the shutters go down. Some arrangement will have to be made to dispose of these in bulk. Since 200 men were discharged a fortnight ago, others have received their dismissals in batches of from twenty to fifty. Every branch of the business whose continuance was rendered unnecessary by the approaching suspension has been summarily lopped off. In this way the credit department, with its clerks, has been cut adrift. It is estimated that about 400 men have already been dispensed with, and that 1,100 remain to be thrown out of employment at the end of this month.

Lear Kicking out of the Traces.

PHILADELPHIA, June 7.—Ex-Attorney General George Lear, permanent chairman of the regular republican convention, at Harrisburg, has written to Chairman Cooper, of the state committee, a long letter in reference to Cooper's call for a re-assembly of the convention on June 21st, to nominate a candidate for congressman at large in place of Thomas M. Marshall, declined. Lear says he will not attend the convention; that Cooper had no right to call it without the authorization of the state committee; that the convention is a defunct body, and a new one must be called, composed of delegates elected in the manner prescribed by the peace conference at the Continental hotel, and approved by the Harrisburg convention. Lear severely criticizes the methods of Senator Cameron, and says the salvation of the party depends upon whether both the regular and independent state committee will agree to call a convention in September composed of delegates elected in the manner prescribed, for the purpose of naming a ticket to be supported by all republicans.

A Word in Regard to Self-styled Manufacturers.

It is common to read in almost any clothing advertisement, no matter how diminutive the dealer, the statement that he is a manufacturer, or his stock is made to his order, and therefore he is able to retail at wholesale prices.

Small manufacturers, except in specialties, have long since been crowded from the field. There is but one class of wholesale manufacturers in this country to-day, and they are the closest of this age. Their establishments represent fortunes in their equipments. Wholesale manufacturers, in this age of progress, to compete with each other, must be supplied with all the machinery of the present time: steam cutters, steam spongers, steam pressing machines, steam sewing and steam button-hole machines. This represents a fortune in itself. It then requires a small army to feed this vast mechanism, furnishing annual employment to thousands of operatives, to which annex the capital necessary to completely stock with material and fabric, oftentimes consuming the entire product of extensive woolen mills, and you have the reason why a small manufacturer cannot compete, except on paper, with those mammoth firms that have raised the standard of ready made clothing from its crude and imperfect make up of a dozen years ago. Our factory at Utica contains every economy and labor-saving invention of the age, which could not be maintained except by vast outlet throughout almost every Northern State, facilities which small dealers do not possess, and without which they cannot compete. We boldly make the assertion that there is no clothing manufacturer in this city except that of OWEN, PIXLEY & CO.

It is very difficult, in fact impossible, to give accurate descriptions of clothing except in a general way, which is much like describing how a certain article of food tastes. It cannot be done satisfactorily. The food must be tasted, and the garment must be seen, to be fully appreciated. In this column we give, in round numbers, the number of suits upon our counters in the various departments, a greater number, probably, than can be found in any other competitive stores in the city. The question of variety from which to make a selection is so important that no argument is needed to convince anyone that those large stores where the greatest varieties are exhibited are the best places to make purchases. These great varieties mean vast combinations in colorings, designs and shapes. Add to this the fact that we manufacture all our clothing, and retail strictly at New York jobbing prices, and you have the argument why you should visit OWEN, PIXLEY & Co. for your clothing. Come in, and afterward form your own conclusion from personal inspection.

grown with such rapidity that the heart and lungs were pushed out of minent danger of death from suffocaof recovering, if he has vitality enough left to rally from the shock. This is A well known traveling man, who visits the city frequently, tells a story of his own gallantry. On the train going to Rome City he met an elegant lady with diamonds in her ears and dressed in the height of fashion.

She said she was from Fort Wayne, and that she would be joined at Rome City Saturday by her husband. The traveling man thought he had a match and took upon himself the pleasing task of being her attendant cavalier.
He settled the hotel bills, bought wine, etc., and had a very enjoyable time. Any married man who can derive consolation from this story has our permission to do so. The lady is believed to be the wife of the waiting man.

Wabash passenger train No. 1 was forty minutes late to-day.
D. J. Blumick has been appointed guardian of J. W. Mary E. and Ida Schneider, minors.

The sewer connections with the Harmon house are undergoing a much needed repair.

Dan Harmon contemplates building a new house to the rear of his block, near the railroad.

Ground was broke to-day for the new building to be erected on Calhoun street opposite the Cathedral.

James Welch and a Columbia City man were sent to jail this morning for twelve days. They were drunk.

W. G. Crowley, the clever press agent of Forepaugh's circus, is in the city to-day. The great show exhibits here July 8.

The ship of Studebaker to the United States Express company will be tried on the 20th, before Judge Lowry and a jury.

It is gratifying to state that the business men and others respond liberally to the requests for aid for the Fourth of July celebration.

Martin Salinger was at Lafayette yesterday. He returned to-day accompanied by his sister, Miss Sallie Salinger, who will visit here for some time.

James Fox has removed his coal yard from the vacant lot corner of Clinton and Railroad streets to the vacant yard west of the street car stable, on Railroad street.

New suits in the superior court are:
Wilhelmina Tona vs. D. C. Fisher on account; demand, $1,000; and Putnam and Hooker vs. Evans, McDonald & Co., on account; demand, $550.

Jerry Ettinger, known as the "crank printer," is in the city. He is the only rival to the "Immortal J. N." Jerry, years ago, held important positions on Fort Wayne newspapers.

The city officers will attend the opening of the Catholic fair in a body next Saturday night. Mayor Zollinger will formally open the fair and introduce the speaker of the evening, Hon. Edward O'Rourke.

C. F. Lape, of the Wabash, has invented an ingenious riveting machine.
It is now in use in the Wabash shops and has a capacity of driving 450 rivets per day. It is said that J. H.
Bass will examine the machine with a view of introducing it in his foundries.

Elsewhere in THE SENTINEL can be found an advertisement from the New York, Chicago and St. Louis Railroad company, asking for bids on the erection of a new round house.
THE SENTINEL informed its readers of the proposed improvement last evening.

Yesterday a couple of young women employed at a hotel in this city hired a horse and buggy from Liggett's livery stable and went to the race. The horse ran away, smashed the buggy and threw out one of the females, Amanda Reed, dislocating her shoulder.

Conrad Solgy, an Abolite township farmer, was arrested this morning by Marshal Falker for cruelty to his horse. The animal was a mere skeleton and could hardly walk. The shoulder was covered with bleeding abrasures.
On the promise of the fellow to purchase a straw collar and not work the horse until he was in fit condition, the marshal released the man.

The Brandriff Failure.
Ninde and Ellison, attorneys for A. D. Brandriff, whose heavy failure was announced last night, consent to say that the liabilities will reach $85,- 000, and place the assets at $30,000 less. Yesterday execution issued on the judgments in favor of White, Meyer and Crane, and this morning, a judgment in favor of N. P. Stockbridge for $2,000 was entered in the circuit court. The taking of inventory will occupy several days. A further statement of his affairs is promised by Mr. Brandriff soon.

The failure of the firm was suspected for some time. About $4,000 worth of its paper, payable in some Virginia town, was offered for sale to a private banker of this city, who advised the negotiator to have the place of payment changed, as it looked suspicious. This he tried to do, but Brandriff refused, stating that they had so much paper to meet here and they did not care to burden themselves.

Mr. Brandriff promises to do what is honorable and nobody acquainted with his record as a business man can doubt this.

A Pleased Acquaintance.

PEOPLE ADVANCING
ALL
ALONG THE LINE.

Dr. Frothingham and Kingsley of the Grand Rapids English Medical and Surgical Institute, 65 Monroe street have arrived in our city and have established a branch at 34 West Main street, Aufrecht's block, Fort Wayne, where our many citizens now under their treatment can consult with them; also any who wish can obtain the benefit of their accurate diagnosis of their diseases without questions and free of charge, thus giving every one the privilege of their unprecedented experience in their specialty, without the heretofore long journey to Grand Rapids. For the past three years so frequent and imperative have the demands that they should personally visit their many patients in our city, and Northern Indiana, that they have at last consented, and will charge nothing for all those coming under their treatment the first 20 days. Drs. F. & K. astonish all by the accuracy of their diagnosis, which amount almost to intuition; they locate every acute and chronic disease, explain how and why the disease or ailment was contracted, and demonstrate how it can be eradicated and in what length of time; these facts are indubitable, but to state the case to the patient. They have no time for experiments; their time is all occupied treating those they can cure.
A thousand testimonials from Grand Rapids can be seen at their office, some of which we would print had we room.

AN INSANE CRANK. An Old Man Named Jacob Schmitz Sets His Son's House Afire and Tries to Drown Himself in a Wash Tub.

Yesterday afternoon, what would have been a most terrible tragedy, had it not been for timely discovery, was averted. Jacob Schmitz is an old man of nearly seventy years residing with his son-in-law, John Stoppel, who lives on Webster street. Yesterday afternoon, while Stoppel was at his work in the Bass foundry and his wife out shopping, the old man was left to take care of the two children. Some five years ago he was sent from Peru to the insane asylum, but was discharged about two years ago cured. Since then his dementia has not returned to such an extent as to cause trouble, his only manifestations being those of a harmless gibbering lunatic. The old man is greatly attached to his grand children and has frequently been entrusted with their care. About an hour after the departure of Mrs.
Stoppel, the old man drove the children out of the house, and heaping up a lot of shavings and kindling on the sitting room floor, set fire to the mass.
He then filled a wash tub with water and endeavored to drown himself by ducking his head therein.
By this time it was about six o'clock and Stoppel came home to find the old man desperately endeavoring to strangle himself by the method mentioned. A large hole was burned in the floor and the carpet was smoldering. The flames had, however, luckily died out. Old Schmitz was collared and locked in his room and finally quieted down, and after a refreshing sleep last night, this morning is in his normal condition, and can remember nothing about the affair. Probably a commission in lunacy will be called upon to adjudge his case, though the family is averse to this proceeding.

Our friend Keator says very emphatically that Dr. W. H. Myers was mistaken about the lecture at the Stumptown church. We are of the opinion that the doctor will leave the editor of the Tribune severely alone in the future.

Parents who allow their children to grow up with acrofulous humors bursting from every pore are guilty of a great wrong. Think of them pointed out as branded with a loath-some disease, and you will readily secure them the Cuticura Remedies.
A pure, wholesome distillation of witch hazel, American pine, Canada fir, marigold, clover blossoms, etc., fragrant with the healing essence of thyme and pine. It is Dr. Sanford's Medical cure for Catarrh. Complete treatment for $1.

The Race.

A large assemblage of people gathered at the fair grounds yesterday to witness the race between Fred Krohne, the long distance pedestrian and the two pacing horses of Dr.
G. P. Barnum, "Sweet William" and "Sorrel Dan." A brass band discouraged music and the beer stand was much patronized, as well as Harmon's "wheel of fortune." A number of ladies in carriages graced the scene and on the grand stand were numerous females, some of whose pretensions to gentility may be questioned. A few minutes after 2 o'clock Krohne, clad in flashings, walking shoes, jacket and cap, started on his long walk. Dr.
Barnum drove "Sorrel Dan" to a light buckboard at a very easy gait, changing about 9 o'clock to "Sweet William." About 9 o'clock the race was finished, the horses making their sixty miles to Krohne's thirty-one and a half miles, beating him by eight miles and one half.
The race was interesting for a time, but finally palled on the spectator.
At the commencement of every half-hour for a time, a young woman named Starling ambled about the track with Krohne for an alleged purse of $20. She won it, we learn.

Men of Large Brain.

Men of large brain sometimes suffer from feelings of extreme mental exhaustion. This feeling should not be neglected. Head such symptoms as nervous debility, blotches, skin diseases, dimness of sight, cough, catarrh of the bladder and general debility.
When thus afflicted hasten to use Dr. Guyssott's Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla. It strengthens mind and body exhausted by disease and suffering. It is the truest of all life-giving tonics, and nature's best assistant in restoring the proper function to every organ affected.

Mr. Arthur McLane, of Greensburgh, Ind., writes: "After suffering many years from extreme mental exhaustion and nervous debility, and failing to find relief, I expected to die, having tried all advertised remedies for early decay, with no benefit.
My mother was using Dr. Guyssott's Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla. I took a dose occasionally and it made me feel better. I bought a bottle; it did me great good. I am now healthy as ever I was, and have no more disturbing dreams."

The Indianapolis and Fort Wayne Railroad.

Col. Z. Hamer, of the New York, Chicago and St. Louis, this morning received a letter from Milton Jennings, president of the Indianapolis and Fort Wayne standard gauge, stating that it was the intention if inducement is offered to extend the line to South Whitley, forming a junction with the New York, Chicago and St. Louis there. The survey has been completed from Marion to Antioch, and the grade found to be less than twenty feet. Considerable right of way has been secured. On June 5th there was an election in Wayne township, Huntington county, which carried an appropriation. The townships on the line helped to pay for the survey. Mr. Wm. Fleming, of this city, was seen by Mr. Jennings and promised to present the claims of the Indianapolis and Fort Wayne road to the officials of the Nickel Plated. Mr. Jennings is desirous of obtaining financial aid from the New York, Chicago and St. Louis company, but it is not believed they will grant it.

A Card From St. Paul's Band.

To the Editor of The Sentinel:

Our friends of the City band are entirely too anxious about the welfare of the St. Paul's band and the music they furnished on the occasion of the Arion excursion, and as a good turn deserves return we call attention to the very doubtful performance at the Academy of Music, December 20, 1881, even though they claim to be professionals. Respectfully,

ST. PAUL'S BAND.

The Wabash folks are in consultation with Frank Bird relative to establishing a line of Concord coaches between Argos, Marshall county, and Lake Maxinkuckee, to connect with the Wabash line. It is a good move and will no doubt be successful. The stage line will be made as pleasant for travel as by rail. It is evident that the Wabash intends to encourage summer travel to that popular resort, and will leave nothing undone that will provide comfort for the excursionist.

The M. E. college commencement occurs a week from Friday.

Adriondack Murray's Great Fall.

V. A. Fenner, formerly of Sherman, writing from San Antonio, Texas, says that "among the noted residents of the vicinity the Rev. W. H. Murray, 'Adriondack Murray,' as he was called, is here a fallen giant indeed, with none so poor as to do him reverence. When he fled from Boston his fair-haired private secretary, a young lady, followed his fortunes and has since lived with him. Last year her heart-broken father came to her, and, after a despairing effort to get her to return with him, which proved ineffectual, the poor old man, disgraced, broken in spirit, alone in the world, and almost penniless after his long search for her, blew out his brains at the very threshold of Murray's door. Only last Sunday—Sunday, mark you—I saw him at San Pedro springs, unloading, with his own hands, a wagon-load of cedar ties that he had hauled from his little place for the street railroad company. He was without coat, vest or collar, dirty and unshorn, and it would take a keen eye, as a Boston man remarked to me, to detect in him the idolized preacher of one of the proudest pulpits in the Hub."
